

Religious Education (RE) Policy

Religious Education (RE) plays an important role in defining Brockton CE School's distinctive Christian character. Religious education in a Church school should enable every child to flourish and to live life in all its fullness (John 10:10). It will help educate for dignity and respect encouraging all to live well together (The Church of England Statement of Entitlement 2019).

As a school we recognise that spiritual development lies at the heart of the curriculum. All members of our school community should experience Christianity through the life of the school, as well as through the taught curriculum.

RE teaching follows the legal requirements of the Education Reform Act (1988), which places RE as part of the curriculum; a statutory subject which is an entitlement of all pupils. The school bases its RE provision on the Shropshire SACRE Agreed Syllabus with Christianity as the majority study in RE as understanding Christianity as a living religion in the breadth of its worldwide forms is the foundation of Religious Education in Church of England schools. In addition, the school uses the Understanding Christianity resource, materials from the National Society, and other appropriate units to enhance teaching and offer an extra dimension of its Church foundation.

Church of England schools also have a duty to foster an accurate and increasing understanding of world religions and world views. As a result, pupils will gain greater insight into the world in which they are growing up. They will also be able to appreciate the faith of others and develop a deeper understanding of their own beliefs and practices. These outcomes must contribute to harmonious relationships within and between communities, promoting social inclusion and combating prejudice.

At least 5% of our curriculum time will be dedicated to meeting explicitly RE objectives, although the subject may be taught across the curriculum when appropriate. Within this teaching allocation at least two thirds of subject content will be allocated to an exploration of the Christian faith, and the concepts, beliefs, teachings and practices that lie at its heart.

The British Values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs can be promoted through the teaching of RE.

AIMS & OBJECTIVES

The aims of Religious Education in our school are:

- To offer a full and positive presentation of living Christianity in an opportunity for encountering the Christian life in Anglican and other contexts, and to enable pupils to encounter Christianity as the religion that shaped British culture and heritage and influences the lives of millions of people today
- To enable pupils to learn about other major religions, their impact on culture and politics, art and history and on the lives of their adherents

- To develop an understanding of religious faith as the search for and expression of truth, and so to consider important human questions, values and concerns.
- To contribute to the development of pupils' own spiritual / philosophical convictions, exploring and enriching their own faith and beliefs

OUTCOMES

By the end of their time at Brockton CE School, pupils should be able to:

- Compare and contrast the key beliefs and practices of the religions studied and show how they are connected to believers' lives
- Describe different aspects of belonging to a religion – symbol, story, festival, belief, faith in action, ritual, worship
- Express religious beliefs and ideas with the appropriate language, vocabulary and terminology and describe what they mean
- Ask questions sensitively about the lives of believers and suggest appropriate answers
- Reflect on the decisions people make – including believers – and suggest possible outcomes
- Compare their own experience and identity with others – including believers
- Reflect and empathise with the big questions of life, suggesting some answers and insights
- Be confident to explore their own spirituality and search for truth
- Value the religious journey of faith
- Have an ability to interpret and appreciate religious imagery and expression

In addition, RE as a subject contributes to other areas of education and human experience and plays an important part of the wider programme of spiritual, moral, social and cultural development.

Spiritual	widening pupils vision of themselves and their own experience, within the context of a growing awareness and understanding of God.
Moral	helping each pupil develop their own informed values.
Social	helping pupils understand some major forces shaping the values in our society.
Cultural	aiding pupils in exploring aspects of their own cultural heritage, and in developing positive attitudes towards diversity.

Additional links will be found across the curriculum especially with Citizenship and PSHE. RE can also make a positive contribution to enhancing creativity and enjoyment and ensure the well-being of all pupils.

RIGHT TO WITHDRAW

We wish to be an inclusive community but recognise that parents have the legal right to withdraw their children from religious education or collective worship on the grounds of conscience, without giving a reason. Parents wishing to exercise this right are asked to write to the headteacher who will then invite the parents into school to discuss their concerns, clarify the nature of the RE and worship provided by the school and set out the options open to the parents as set out in education law. However, the right of withdrawal does not extend to other areas of the curriculum when, as may happen on occasion, spontaneous questions on religious matters are raised by pupils or there are issues related to religion that arise in other subjects. Where a pupil is withdrawn from RE and does not take part in alternative religious education they will be supervised by an appropriate member of staff whilst doing work set by their parents which will seek to further their knowledge and understanding of their parents' beliefs and values.

MANAGEMENT

RE is given equal status with other core subjects in staffing, responsibility and resourcing. Pupil achievement in RE should equal or be better than comparable subjects.

As a church school we recognise that it should be a priority to build up staff expertise in RE.

The RE Subject Leader is responsible for:

- Ensuring that the scheme of work for the school meets the Shropshire Agreed Syllabus
- Supporting colleagues in the detailed planning and delivery of RE provision
- Ensuring Religious Education has status within the school
- Keeping in touch with subject developments and disseminating information as appropriate
- Auditing and recording current resources, supplementing resource provision when funding is available and disseminating this information to staff
- Undertaking personal development and subject training and ensuring provision for staff INSET
- Monitoring RE provision, practice and outcomes through pupil voice, teacher feedback, evidence in books and the school environment
- Ensuring assessment strategies are in place in line with the Agreed Syllabus
- Meeting with member of the Diocesan RE advisory team when possible

Policy Reviewed: Spring 2025